THE MACLEOD TIMES

Attacked Wednesday

Cairo, Nov. 21.—Manifestations of sympathy were everywhere apparent today over the death of Major General Sir Lee Stack, governor-general of the Sudan and the sirdar of the Egyptian army. Flags were half-masted throughout the city, tokens of mourning being seen on all buildings from the humblest shop to the great houses, government buildings, legations and consulates.

The sirdar died late last night, succumbing to the wounds suffered Wednesday when he was attacked by a group of men with revolvers and bombs. It is understood the funeral will be held tomorrow morning.

Tenne, Feeling in London
London, Nov. 21.—The announcement from Cairo of the death of Major General Sir Lee Stack has aroused tenne feeling in London. The British cabinet held a special summoned council yesterday to discuss the outrage and policy to be followed. At that time, however, the sirdar had not succumbed to the wounds inflicted by assassins.

Although the king of Egypt and the Sudan authorities have taken a correct attitude, it is expected the British government will dispatch a strong note, insisting on prompt satisfaction for the assassination and guarantees for the cessation of anti-British propaganda.

Cairo, Nov. 24.—The Egyptian cabinet headed by Zagloul Pasha, tendered its resignation today to King Fuad, who accepted it. The king summoned Zivar Pasha, president of the senate, who consented to form a cabinet.

London, Nov. 24.—Events moved swiftly in Cairo yesterday and the Egyptian government has to a large extent complied with Great Britain's virtual ultimatum, embodying a series of stern demands in the way of reparation for the assassination of Major General Sir Lee Stack, sirdar of the Egyptian army. Premier Zagloul explained in a secret session of parliament Saturday night the lines of his proposed reply and having secured a vote of confidence, he delivered a note yesterday to Viscount Allenby, the British high commissioner, agreeing to apologize, punish the criminals and pay the required indemnity of $500,000.

The premier's note was couched in polite terms, but it refused to shoulder responsibility for the assassination. He then called for nominations for delegates with the result that J. W. McDonald, K.C., Geo. Skelding, ex-M.L.A., George Pearson, Hugh McIntosh, W. J. Reid, Dr. Fanstet, Dan Gillen, R. Carroll and T. Worthington were named.

These will attend, or in the event of some being unable to go, the alternates will fill their places, and be present when the convention is called to order. No mention was made of any leader, but all go with open minds to vote for the one they think is the best man for the position of leader of the Liberal party in Alberta.

Occupancy Customs Office
Cairo, Nov. 24.—Lord Allenby, the British high commissioner, at noon today informed Premier Zagloul Pasha that instructions had been given for British forces to occupy the Alexandria customs. This, he said, was the first measure to be taken in consequence of Egypt's non-acceptance of all the British demands following the assassination of Sir Lee Stack, the sirdar.

The indemnity of $500,000 demanded by the British for the death of the sirdar, was paid by the Egyptian government at 11:45 o'clock this morning. The payment was accompanied by a note protesting against the British demand for evacuation of the Sudan by Egyptian troops and for the withdrawal of all opposition to the wishes of the British government concerning the protection of foreign interests in Egypt which demands the note characterized as unjustifiable.

Cairo today were a generally peaceful, if somewhat excited aspect.

INDIANS UNITED BY CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE

Right Reverend Cyprian Pinkham, Bishop of Calgary, was the guest over Saturday and Sunday of the Rev. A. G. Biddle of Pincher Creek. On Sunday morning His Lordship motored to Brocket where he took charge of two services.

The work being done by the Rev. Mr. Haynes at Brocket is wonderful. The bishop christened several Indian children; a large number of children and adults were confirmed and there were six Indian marriages performed by His Lordship. The Brocket mission was crowded at both services by Peigan Indians longing to hear the gospel.

His Lordship returned to Pincher Creek in the late afternoon.

EMPRESS THEATRE

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

WILLIAM FARNUM RETURNS TO SCREEN

'Man Who Fights Alone' First for Paramount

William Farnum's first starring picture for Paramount, "The Man Who Fights Alone," will be shown next Monday and Tuesday at the Empress Theatre. The production, his first in over a year, is an adaptation by Jack Cunningham, who wrote the scenario of "The Covered Wagon," of the story, "The Miracle of Hate," by William Blackie and James Shelley Hamilton. Lois Wilson and Edward Horton play opposite the star in featured roles.

The story is one of the great open spaces. Farnum is a power engineer—a silent, lone fighter of the western wastes—a pioneer of industry who has to overcome not only practically insurmountable physical obstacles but mental ones in the bargain. He has to master himself to win success.

Miss Wilson is the girl in the picture. Edward Horton the other man, who remains Farnum's loyal friend throughout. Others in the great cast are Lionel Belmore, Barlowe Borland, Frank Farrington, Dawn O'Day, Rose Tapley and George Irving.

If you liked Farnum in the virile, "he-man" roles of his previous productions, you'll like him in this one. Without a doubt, it's his greatest screen role.

Wallace Worsley, who made "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," directed.

RICHARD BARTHELMESS ONE OF HAPPIEST MEN ON THE SCREEN

Richard BarthelMESS is one of the happiest young men in motion pictures. Happy because he has achieved stardom, happy because there are no long waits between his pictures, happy because he is being supplied with an infinite variety of roles, and happy because his producer-director is casting his pictures with highly talented players.

This last cause for happiness indicates that this young star has a great

The fine residence of J. Arthur White (Scotia Ranch) was completely destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon while Mr. White and his family were in Macleod. The residence is situated about 6 miles west of Macleod on the Pincher Creek trail, and was one of the finest in that part of the country. Mr. White accompanied by his wife and son motored to Macleod yesterday morning, leaving everything safe and secure on their return. The afternoon, a smouldering heap of ashes was all that was left of their former home. A valuable violin belonging to Donald White was destroyed in the conflagration, also an expensive old country piano, as well as valuable papers, books and other securities. The outbuildings, barns and stables luckily escaped being burned, as there was no wind to carry the fire to them. The place is a total loss as there was no insurance carried. The damage cannot yet be estimated, but several thousands dollars are involved.

MACLEOD LIBERALS APPOINT DELEGATES

An enthusiastic crowd gathered in the Odd Fellows' Hall on Saturday at 2 p.m. to elect delegates to attend the Liberal convention at Calgary on November 27. President McDonald called the meeting to order, explaining what was to be done, and asked all Liberals to continue in the good old way, which is the way to Liberal ways and means of building a greater and better province.

He then called for nominations for delegates with the result that J. W. McDonald, K.C., Geo. Skelding, ex-M.L.A., George Pearson, Hugh McIntosh, W. J. Reid, Dr. Fanstet, Dan Gillen, R. Carroll and T. Worthington were named.

DON'T FAIL TO BECOME INITIATED

There will be a rush and scramble for seats at the Town Hall on Friday evening next, by all the ladies in Macleod, as each and every one will want to become a member of the first lodge of Masons for ladies only in Canada. Considering it is their first initiation meeting, the ladies of the lodge have decided to allow the ladies to bring their husbands on this occasion, to show the poor weak mortals of men the correct and proper way to manage and operate a secret organization, with all due pomp and ceremony. In addition to this great attraction a splendid musical program has been arranged and the whole complete program and entertainment will only cost fifty cents. You will miss the greatest laugh of the year if you miss "Sister Masons," Friday night at the Town Hall.

HEATED CHIMNEY CAUSES SMALL FIRE

On Wednesday morning the fire brigade was called out to a fire which occurred at J. Alexander's residence in Town. On the arrival of the fire fighters their services were not needed, as the only damage done was a chimney getting overheated from a big fire in the stove.

"Sister Masons" will meet in the Town Hall, November 28th. Come and be initiated.

ments of the screen. So rare were these "objets d'art" that one of the foremost dealers of New York City remarked that if they could be purchased he would obtain a sum in excess of a million dollars for the collection.

The story of "The Fighting Blade" is an episode in the most thrilling period of English history, that which saw the overthrow of Charles I. by Oliver Cromwell," said Mr. Robertson. "We have used that episode in which Kerstenbrook, played by Richard BarthelMESS, a famous ally of Cromwell, vanquishes the Earl of Staversham and destroys Staversham Castle, an outpost which proved a stumbling block in Cromwell's progress. And we determined to stage this historic conflict between the 'round heads' and the royalists in a manner that would make the production proof against even the most capricious critic.

This is responsible in its proportions and research here and in England, other months of careful preparation, and still other months of filming, we claim that we have invested the production with an authenticity which gives it no mean historical value.

"A set which attracts attention is the great hall of Staversham castle. This is mammoth in its proportions and was furnished with grandeur, for it was in the great hall that the nobleman entertained his monarch. We have reproduced it correctly as to architecture, and furnished it as correctly. The entire walls are covered with eight very rare tapestries of the Flemish and Gothic sixteenth century, all of them remarkably well preserved. They are worth today over a half million dollars.

"On the off wall in the rear of the set is a magnificent Elizabethan Court cupboard, such as were used for exhibiting beautiful gold and silver plate, as well as the storing of valuables, there being no safes in those days. A Gothic chair which is said to have been used by one of the Cardinals in the late 15th century, and a sofa and two arm chairs of the Elizabethan period are in this hall. It was extremely difficult to locate this furniture, and harder still to obtain its use. You may well believe we covered it heavily with insurance.

"Adorning the walls are the war banners of Staversham, and some of the plate which survived the raids of Charles I when, to get the funds to carry on his resistance to Cromwell, the monarch seized and melted all the plate he could seize. There is little of this plate extant, and we made reproductions from what few pieces were able to obtain.

"Even the bolts, hinges, locks and keys were genuine old pieces. The lock, key and bolt used in the arched door in the upper hall of the castle are of particular interest. They were taken from an old Castle in Tuscany, and are over four hundred years old.

"A bedroom was furnished in wonderful antiques. There is a rare example of Elizabethan hand-carved post bed completed in 1575. Its headboard is magnificently inlaid with various woods. The curtains used on this bed are of real lace applied on velvet. The chest of drawers is Jacobean and is said to have been made in 1635, which would make it one of the earliest examples. It is inlaid with small pieces of ivory. There is a low chest, the work of Flemish artists, and a mantle of the Tudor-Gothic also in this bedroom. And andrions of the Cromwellian era.

"Truly the lover and connoisseur of antiques will find much of interest in these sets. The word got abroad that we had secured these pieces and our studio was besieged by collectors, dealers, connoisseurs and others who asked permission to study them."

Joseph Swichard, who became world famous by his wonderful portrayal of the father in "The Four Horsemen," is in the support of the latest western thriller of Fred Thomson's "North of Nevada," that comes to the Empress Theatre Friday and Saturday.

PRICELESS ANTIQUES AND ART TREASURES USED IN PRODUCING "THE FIGHTING BLADE"

AT THE EMPRESS NEXT WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

John S. Robertson's Production, Starring Richard BarthelMESS, Made Critic-Proof by Diligent Research and Discovery of Authentic Furnishings of Period.

Priceless antiques and art treasures of untold value were used by John S. Robertson in the filming of his latest production, "The Fighting Blade," a First National picture starring Richard BarthelMESS, which is said to be one of the notable achievements use these persons as a means of obtaining convictions. They also protested against the onus of identification which is placed on them in the case of minors and interdicts. This applies particularly to interdicted persons from another locality.

The hotel men also demand the right of ordinary citizens, in that, if they hold a permit for hard liquor, they shall be allowed to keep it in their private residence, if they happen to be in the licensed hotel.

The convention went on record as being opposed to the principle that a man is guilty until proved innocent. This, they say, is the interpretation of several sections of the act as it stands at present.

They also protested against search without a warrant.

Importation of Beer
A resolution was passed asking the government to allow the importation of beer from outside the province. Some of the delegates expressed the view that it would not be fair to give the Alberta brewers a monopoly in this respect. Some complained that the breweries did not allow the dealers any wholesale price. They sold beer by the case to the hotel men for the same price charged to individual consumers.

The legislative committee appointed by the convention were instructed to prepare the case of the Hotel Association and to present it to the government.

CALL ON FRANCE MAY BE ANSWER

London, Nov. 26.—France may be called upon to make an immediate payment of her debt to England if the government press does not change its tone over the British attitude over the Egyptian crisis.

This is the warning which is given full prominence in the Daily Express this morning and it is a true reflection of the resentment generally aroused here by the recent attitude of France in this matter.

Austen Chamberlain will have a personal interview with Herriot shortly when there is bound to be some plain speaking. Britain is anxious to help France to get security, but she wants to effect this without accepting the Geneva protocol, which France is preparing to ratify. This is the reason that Britain is making haste to prepare her alternative plan which she intends to place before the league at the earliest possible moment.

There is a strong feeling in British official circles that France cannot expect to have everything her own way, and that the time has now arrived when she should begin to discuss her indebtedness to Britain. The French attitude in the Egyptian affair has only crystallized this sentiment and the chief exponent of this line of thought is Winston Churchill, the new chancellor of the exchequer.

WEST TO SEND INFLUENTIAL DELEGATION TO OTTAWA

Winnipeg, Nov. 26.—Western Canada will be represented by one of the largest and most influential delegations that has ever journeyed to the east to wait upon the federal government preparatory to the cabinet meeting to be called on December 4, to deal with the action of the board of railway commissioners relative to the Crow's Nest rates agreement.

The provinces will be represented by three premiers—Hon. John Bracken, for Manitoba; Hon. C. A. Dunning, Saskatchewan, and Hon. Herbert Greenfield, Alberta. Leading members of the legal profession will be included in the delegation, including H. J. Symington, K. C., counsel for the three provinces. The Canadian Council of Agriculture, representing more than 80,000 farmers, the three wheat pool organizations, Retail Merchants' Association, city councils and boards of trade of many western cities have indicated that they will be represented on the interviewing committee.

The delegates will not be able to go east in a body, but as many as possible will leave next Monday night or Tuesday morning.

ANCIENT AND MODERN AERIAL FLIGHTS

If the ancient legends and mythologies may be taken as an index of the general belief, or hope, that man might some day fly through the air like the birds, the aspiration seems to have been common to all ages. The fantastic tales of the middle ages contain nothing of any practical value in the history of aerial navigation.

The first recorded attempt at aerial flight in England was made in the eleventh century by Oliver of Malmesbury. In his "History of Britain," 1670, Malmesbury evidently thought the occurrence sufficiently well authenticated to include in his work. The story runs that Oliver, having fitted wings to his hands and feet, flew from the top of a tower for more than a furlong, when "the wind being to high, he came fluttering down, to the maiming of all his limbs." He was not, however, daunted by this mishap. For Milton adds, "He was so conceited of his art, that he attributed the cause of his failure to the want of a tail, as birds have."

Oliver failed because his dreams and aspirations exceeded his knowledge.

During the centuries between Oliver's experiment and present-day flying men have gradually accumulated and unified the knowledge necessary to conquer the air. The time is fast approaching when airships will be on all important routes of travel. The successful transatlantic flight of the ZR3 has been followed by the announcement that the British Government has placed a contract for the construction of two dirigibles with a gas capacity of five million cubic feet, being twice the size of the ZR3, and with accommodation for two hundred passengers, with all the comforts of modern travel.

It is intended to place one of these ships on the run to Australia, via Egypt and India.

The difference between the failure of Oliver of Malmesbury and the achievements of today is the difference between ignorance and ordered knowledge.

NO DISEASE BY 1974

Within 50 years, chemists and physicians will have discovered cures for nearly all enemies of the human body, including such dread maladies as cancer. So predicts Dr. William S. Nichols, former president of American Chemical Society.

Then no one would die until the body just naturally wore out like an aged machine, barring accidents and such killers as lightning. It is pleasant to contemplate.

Why wait 50 years? The famous Dr. Wiley, in his eighties, recently said: "If luxury could be destroyed and all houses burned to drive us outdoors, the diseases which kill us old and middle-aged men would disappear."

That's true. Disease as a rule isn't much to fear. The great danger is in a lowering of the body's powers of resistance or fighting off disease.

And lowered resistance is an inevitable result of living an unnatural life. Of course, as time goes on, man's body adapts itself to its environment—becomes immune to conditions and germs that have killed city-dwellers before long environment led to immunization.

The Eskimos are the healthiest people in the world. Bring them down to our cities and die like flies. It was so with the red Indians—exceedingly healthy until "white" men brought their diseases, such as tuberculosis, and his alcohol to lower their powers of resistance.

All this demonstrates that disease is usually an unnatural condition.

Also, that most diseases are created by civilization, and that wherever civilization goes it carries its diseases with it.

Does nature disapprove of civilization, particularly of our congregating densely in cities, and try to "get across" to us the news of her disapproval by attacking us with maladies?

THAT LITTLE WORD 'OBEY'

English women, according to a cable despatch, are waging a determined battle to have the word "obey" taken out of the marriage ceremony. They say that wives no longer are required, in practice, to obey their husbands.

If these ladies really desire to bring the marriage service into strict conformity with marriage practice, the word "obey" should be deleted from the pledge taken by the wife and inserted in the pledge taken by the husband.

For what honest man will deny that no matter how many vows of obedience are taken by the wife, it is the husband who has been doing the obeying ever since Eve made Adam eat the fateful apple, core and all, some 6000 years ago.

CHRIST CHURCH

The services at Christ Church on Sunday next, (Advent Sunday) both morning and evening, will be conducted by Mr. E. N. Barker of Lethbridge.

"If"

(Ladies' Version).
Cliff Bastin, in Mail and Empire

If you can hold your hair when all about you
Are bobbing theirs and doing it with glee;
If you can smile when bare-necked flappers flout you,
And walk around for all the world to see.
If you can pass a barber shop and in you
Sense not a little prick of conscience guilt
And boyish cuts and shingles fail to win you,
Or weaken not the vows that you have built.
If you can bother combing night and morning,
Long tresses blonde or black or maybe red;
If you can sit for hours at night adorning
With curlers all that wool e're you seek your bed,
If when you wash your hair you are contented
To wait for hours until the mass shall dry,
And carry on and not be half demoralized—
Or fuss or weep or softly sigh a sigh.
If you have secret fear of bobbed hair rashes,
Or cannot bear a razor on your neck,
Or if you think that bobbing is audacious
And that the fad soon should receive a check.
If you are sure your thoughts are clear, not hazy,
And from your being nothing has been robbed,
I'll say, my dear, you surely would be crazy
To go and have your pretty tresses bobbed.

CAPITAL GOSSIP AND PROV. NEWS

Alberta Judging Teams Win

Considerable distinction has been brought to the Province of Alberta during the past week by the success of the stock judging teams which represented the province at the Royal Stock Show at Toronto.

The team in swine judging from Vegreville, comprised of Albert Jones and Peter Wylie, was successful in winning the Canadian National stock judging competition against the other western teams at Toronto.

The team won the C.P.R. silver trophy in the swine judging competition of the boys and girls clubs in Northern Alberta some weeks ago, and also the free trip to the Toronto show offered by the Canadian National railways.

The team was coached by P. H. Newcombe, district agriculturist of the Provincial Department at Vegreville.

The Macleod cup in the stock judging contest at Toronto was won by the team from Alberta University comprised of Thos. Devlin, Wm. Gentleman, Malcolm McEara, C. K. Johns and L. B. Thomson, in charge of Prof. Sackville of the Animal Husbandry Department of the University. Premier honours in the entire competition were carried off by Devlin.

Dates for the Seed Fair

The dates for the annual provincial seed fair, to be held this year at Calgary are announced tentatively as being January 20 to 23. The arrangements are in the hands of the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Alberta Seed Growers' Association.

Municipal Convention

The annual convention of the Alberta association of municipal districts will be held this year at Calgary on November 27 and 28.

Steady Improvement in Cream Quality

Returns of cream grading for ten months of the present year show a continued increase in the quality of cream produced in the province. To the end of October of this year a total of 45,705,476 lbs. of cream had been graded, compared with 38,294,195 for the same period of last year. Of the amount graded this year, 41 per cent. graded special compared with 37.6 per cent. last year, and 44.3 per cent. graded first compared with 41.4 per cent. last year. There has been a consequent drop in seconds from 16.9 per cent. last year to 11.3 per cent. this year.

The increase in cream graded this year over last year in the ten months has been 21.2 per cent. The amount of butter graded in the ten months has been 13,008,223 lbs., compared with 9,057,592 lbs. for the same period of last year, an increase of 43.6 per cent.

Holds Corn Show

Another stage in Alberta's progress as a corn growing country was marked last week with the holding of a corn show at Milk River, south of Lethbridge. There was a good number of entries and the exhibits were of good quality.

Indians Hold Convention

More than a hundred delegates from every Blackfoot tribe on the continent attended the first convention of the tribe at Macleod, in Southern Alberta, last week. The reports of the convention describe it as a convocation of sober-minded, intelligent Indians bent upon the discussion of problems peculiar to them and the development of their reserves. Many of the members of the Blackfoot tribes in Alberta are successful farmers.

Attendance at Agricultural Schools

Attendance at the Agricultural Schools this year shows a considerable revival of interest in the schools. The attendance at the Olds School of Agriculture this term has reached 180. The attendance last year was 132. The attendance at the Agricultural School at Claresholm is now 79, with eight or ten more to come, compared with a total attendance last term of 70. At Vermilion School there are now 50 British youths in attendance.

Alberta's Good Record

A crop map prepared by the Canadian Pacific Railway, received at the Department of Agriculture at Edmonton, shows that of the 32 stations on the C. P. R. in the west which shipped more than a million bushels of wheat in 1923-24 season, 20 were in Alberta. Two stations on the system in the West shipped more than two million bushels, one of them being in Alberta. This was Vulcan, south of Calgary.

MUSICAL RECITAL GREATLY ENJOYED

On Friday evening last the Parish Hall was filled with a large and appreciative audience, that more than enjoyed the splendid program offered by Mrs. Ker Seymour's pupils. The entertainment was full of variety and both the instrumental, vocal and dancing numbers were well presented and deserved the applause that was given each and every turn. Special mention should be made of the dancing of Aldra Meers, presenting a Spanish dancing girl, which number was greatly and enthusiastically applauded. Every performer deserves the greatest credit, especially so Miss Bergstrom, Miss Griffin, Miss Anderson, Mrs. J. W. McDonald, Mrs. A. T. Jones, Mrs. F. Morris, Mr. D. White, Mr. J. T. Doney and his orchestra, all of whom assisted in making the program so enjoyable. At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Ker Seymour was heartily congratulated for the entertainment and the splendid showing made by her pupils both in piano and vocal studies. At the conclusion of the concert an informal dance was held, and the music supplied by Mr. Doney's orchestra, Mrs. A. T. Jones, violin, Marjorie Dufour, Winnifred Reach and Jean Gordon at the piano. The piano accompaniments were played by Mrs. Ker Seymour.

Following is the program:

Selections, J. T. Doney's Orchestra; Bridge Building by the Boy Scouts; Spanish Dance, Aldra Meers; Musical Drill by senior members C.G.I.T. under direction of Miss Bergstrom; Old English Rounds by Junior Members C.G.I.T. under the direction of Miss Griffin and Miss Anderson; Song of the Washerwoman, by six small girls under the direction of Mrs. J. W. McDonald; Vocal duet, "Sweet Melody," May Grier and Gladys Cooney; Dance, Aldra Meers; Orchestra Selection; Song, Mr. D. White; Song, Mrs. F. Morris; Violin Solo, Serenade, Mrs. A. T. Jones; Song, Mr. D. White.

Doubtless a lot of great men of yore got by because there were no intelligence tests to disqualify them.

Some churches languish because their preachers have none of the qualifications of a mule driver.

Those Christmas candies—do you buy them, or make them yourself?
It is real fun filling a box with various kinds you have made with your own hands, and you have the further satisfaction of knowing they are wholesome and will not hurt the little folks. My mother used to make her candies every year. There are numberless varieties of all flavors and colors, hard and soft, "chewy"
and brittle, with nuts or fruits, dipped in chocolate or plain. Between now and Christmas I shall give you as many different recipes for them as I can in the column.Uncooked Candies
If you have not had much, or any,
experience in candy making, you might well begin with the uncooked varieties. They rarely fail to come out well, and children can make them without fear of burning themselves.
Confectioners' sugar, finer than powdered sugar, must be used where called for in the recipes or the candy will not harden properly. This sugar must be kept in a tight-lidded jar or pail, and be sifted before use to free it of lumps. If the lumps are very hard, a large sheet of clean paper may be spread on the table and a rollingpin used to crush the lumps till fine; then sift the sugar.Cream Fondant Put 2 tablespoons of heavy cream
and a teaspoon of light colored corn syrup in a bowl, add a sifted cup of confectioners' sugar gradually, stirring until it is smooth. If it does not then make a stiff paste, add as much more as is needed. Add whatever flavoring or coloring is desired, and use the fondant to fill dates or fruits, to put between or wrap around nut meats, or to use as filling centers for chocolates or other dipped bonbons.
It may be warmed over a bowl of hot water enough to be able to dip it sections of orange or other fruits, nut meats, cherries, grapes, or centers of other flavor or color. It will have to be kept over the hot water while the dipping is going on, stirred constantly, and frequently it may have to be put a moment over the fire, to keep it from hardening too much for the dipping.Egg Fondant
Put the white of an egg, ½ tablespoon of cold water and ¼ teaspoon vanilla in a bowl and beat it until it is well blended. Sift 2 cups of con-fectioners' sugar and add it a spoonful at a time to the egg, stirring until well mixed each time. When it is very stiff, take it out on a board and knead it with your hands until it is perfectly smooth. Use it to stuff dates, for nut creams, or for centers for chocolates and bonbons.

Blanche as many almonds as you wish to use. The easiest way is to cover the shelled nuts with boiling water, let stand 2 minutes, drain, cover with cold water, and drain again. Then the brown skins will easily slip off in the fingers. Dry the nuts with a towel or piece of cheesecloth. English walnuts or Pistachio nuts may be blanched in the same manner.
Put one of the blanched almonds
each side of a small ball of fondant
made on either of the above recipes,
or cover the almond with the fondant, shaping it with the fingers into a little egg, and roll it in granulated
sugar.Cherry Creams
Make up your fondant, and roll it out ¼ inch thick. Shape it with a round cookie cutter 1-½ in. diameter, and roll a cherry up in it, leaving a climber of the cherry showing. These may be wrapped in little squares of tissue, or laid in little paper cups.
Vanilla, coffee and pistachio fondant look particularly well with the cherries.Cherry Creams II.
Cut your candied cherries almost in halves as desired into 4 sections each and open up like the petals of a flower. Put a little ball of the fondant in the middle, and in the back, in a tiny slit, put the end of a strip of angelica 1-½ in. long for a stem.
These are pretty to put in the top of the box of homemade candy, to dress
it up.Cherry Creams III.

of fondant, and press it gently together, then roll in granulated sugar.Rise of the Woman Politician

ER, VISITS MACLEODOne of the leading Anglican clergymen of the West, in the person of Rev. T. B. R. Westgate, D.D., gave an interesting lecture in the Parish Hall last week. Dr. Westgate, who holds the position of secretary
to the Indian and Eskimo commission of the Anglican church, is a most interesting and forceful speaker. As a missionary he speaks with the authority of first-hand experience,
having been in that work in Africa
before being called home to his present task. He was at work in German East Africa when war broke out, and was interned together with the staffs of various missions in that colony—this in spite of their status as non-combatants. As a Christian missionary, he had flung himself constantly in opposition to the barbarous methods of the Germans, who had the unenviable record of having reduced the native population by nearly three-fourth, by simple methods of slavery and butchery.
When therefore he was taken as prisoner of war, the Germans proceeded to maltreat him as much as possible,
and what was worse to him, to torture his converts before his eyes. The terrible ordeals which he had to endure wrecked his health, so that at the end of the war, he returned home a broken man. Since then, he has recovered, and is now in charge of the Indian educational work of the church.A friend in need is one who has a spare inner tube.
When they so tediously almost hang the wrong man in the last reel, how you wish they would get the director.BUCKLEY'S

I saw the brown deer feeding,
Dappled like adder's-tongue,
And quietly were they feeding
Their nimble-footed young;
By some enchantment herded
Among the bamboo trees,
Whose stems with light were girded
In flickering fantasies.
And as I stood there gazing,
In sunlight and in shade,
They raised small heads from grazing,
With soft eyes unafraid.
I could not pull my golden dart
Out of its broodered case,
It seemed as if my very heart
Were silent in its place.
—William Douglas, in The Atlantic.HELP JUNIOR RED CROSSEvery year as the Christmas season draws near, the children of the Junior Red Cross become little merchants of a certain Christmas ware which they try to sell to a kindly intentioned public.
This Christmas attraction is nothing other than the pretty green and red seal sticker sold on behalf of the Children's Hospital in Calgary. The Alberta Division, like all other Red Cross divisions, looks to the sale of its Red Cross Seals to give an extra fillup to the funds of the Crippled Children's Hospital at the end of the year. As a rule there is evinced a keen desire on the part of the public, to support the sale of seals; many repeat orders come through the mail or by telephone from country branches whose enthusiasm has enabled them to exceed their sale quota, and with future customers in view, they send a rush call in for "more".
Two hundred thousand seals have issued by the Superintendent of Junior Red Cross to the school branches of the province, and it is anticipated that there will so many
"sold out", that it will be necessary to re-stock the little merchants.
The seals bear the old familiar greeting of "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year"; they consist of a Red Cross on a green ground, in the centre is the emblematic mapleOLD CHUM

"Tobacco of Quality" Manufactured by

"Junior Red Cross Alberta." The cost of the seals is one cent per seal.
All monies from sales go to the Junior Red Cross Hospital, and are credited to the Branches as donations, these donations will tell in the summing up of the credits of each Branch in the competition for the Banner which the Lieutenant-Governor's will donate at the end of the year.
There is also the possibility of winning the Lieut-Governor's medal
which will be awarded to that Branch which makes the largest score at selling seals. The Alberta Division will supply any Friends who are unable to purchase seals from the school children on receipt of one dollar per hundred seals. Address: Superintendent, Junior Red Cross, Beveridge Building, Calgary, Alberta.

Fire in the office of Fairweather & Nash's Flour and Feed Store on Friday night did damage to the amount of about $100, with a small amount of damage to the stock from water. The fire was confined to the office.

Two slogans that are worth remembering this time of year "DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY" and "MAIL YOUR CHRISTMAS PARCELS AND LETTERS EARLY." By observing these two annual rules you will avoid lots of disappointment.

Inspector and Mrs. J. Morgan, Macleod have received word that their son, Arthur R. Morgan, B.A., is arriving home from Paris, France, on Friday next. He has been successful in his examinations, and brings home the scholarship award, having been sent from Alberta University a year ago to take this course in French.

Master Jack Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ryan of Macleod, who has been an inmate of the Van Harlem Hospital in Lethbridge, and was precariously ill with the measles, is now reported on the road to recovery. The little lad was operated on Wednesday last by Dr. Woodcock of Lethbridge, who stated that had the operation been postponed another 24 hours the case would have been beyond human aid. The patient was accompanied by his mother while an inmate of the hospital.

J. T. Faunt, Blood Indian Agent was a visitor in Macleod last Saturday.

R. W. Jell, auctioneer, of Granum, was a business visitor to town last week.

Dr. Allen Kennedy has been confined to his bed for the past week suffering from a severely inflamed throat.

A. T. West, returned on Wednesday from Etzikom, where he has been during the past week looking after business interests.

Some of the radio fans listened in on Monday and Tuesday nights to get either Paris or London; the only one so far who reports getting Paris, is Sergt. J. T. Webb who states that he heard a fine French selection from the French Capital. Mr. Frank Mackenzie says he also heard a fine French program at the same time, but this

THE ROARER

"A roaring night!" the pine tree said
As the tall oak bowed to him,
And the man behind the scudding clouds
Grew shadow-like and dim.

"A roaring night!" the highway said
To the leaves that hurried by,
As he heard the fodder shocks astir
With hoarse and gusty sigh.

"A roaring night!" the graybeard said
To the firelight's ruddy gleam,
As he laid a log on the glowing coals
And sat him down to dream.
—Maude De Verse Newton.

REACH & COMPANY, LTD.

DRY GOODS, BOOTS & SHOES, CLOTHING, ETC., GROCERIES, FRUITS, VEGETABLES, PROVISIONS, ETC.

We are preparing for Xmas and New Years and aim to buy what will be useful in making presents. Money is none too plentiful and people are more careful buyers than in the years that have flown. If we bought lots of fancy gifts, that would be only useful for presents, and no earthly use afterwards, we would blame our selves and not you. If you give presents, get something that can be used. You will then be longer in the recipients memory.

Now what is nicer for a gift than a box of handkerchiefs. The prices are lower after war prices. You have no excuse.

Hosiery presents are always acceptable either for men or women. What a delightful gift a box of Hole Proof Hose would be.—Then for your father or brother we have Ties, Fancy Suspenders, Silk Handkerchiefs also Handkerchiefs with their initial on, makes the gift doubly valuable.

If you can afford it, give him a pair of Silk Sox.

For the Bobbed Beauty of every shade and color we have the Princess Pat Bobbed Net. Wear two of those special nets at night, it will save frequent hair dressing. This new 'Net keeps the bob chic and pretty, allows the curl to set, prevents tangles, saves brushing, simply fluff the hair up in the morning and you have a perfect coiffure, the envy of less fortunate sisters, who did not get the tip you are getting from
